Your detailed itinerary

DAY 1 ● QUARTIER LATIN

Enjoy a leisurely afternoon walk through the Quartier Latin (Latin Quarter), exploring its rich history from the Seine to the Luxembourg Gardens. Discover landmarks like the Sorbonne, Collège de France, and the Pantheon. End the day with dinner at Café Delmas on the iconic Rue Mouffetard, immersing yourself in the charm of this vibrant student district.

DAY 2 ● PARIS RIVE DROITE & ÎLE DE LA CITÉ

Start the visit at Concorde Square and walk to Notre-Dame via the Louvre, Tour Saint-Jacques, and Hôtel de Ville. Enjoy lunch at Galerie 88, then cross to Île Saint-Louis for Bertillon ice cream. In the afternoon, explore Sainte-Chapelle and the Conciergerie. End the day at the iconic department store, La Samaritaine—shop or relax with drinks on its rooftop, enjoying stunning Seine views.

DAY 3 ● PÈRE LACHAISE & EASTERN PARIS

Explore the Père Lachaise Cemetery in the morning, visiting the ornate tombs of icons like Oscar Wilde and Jim Morrison. After a light meal at Merci, a chic store with a hidden library café, stroll through the charming Oberkampf-Ménilmontant area, discovering the historic "Metallos" district and its stunning hidden warehouses.

DAY 4 ● OPÉRA GARNIER & MONTMARTRE

Visit the iconic Opéra Garnier in the morning, then walk through Trinité Church and Saint Georges area to Montmartre. After a lunch of traditional French cuisine at La Mascotte, a 19th-century gem, wander the Montmartre picturesque streets, and visit the Montmartre Museum, and its beautiful garden where Renoir created masterpieces.

DAY 5 ● PASSAGES OF PARIS & LE MARAIS

Stroll through charming 19th-century passages from Cadet to Palais Royal, discovering hidden gems. Enjoy coffee at Halle aux Grains, then have a cozy lunch in Saint-Paul neighborhood. In the afternoon, explore Le Marais, visit the Shoah Memorial and historic mansions. Wander through lush gardens and the lively Marché des Enfants Rouges before ending the day with wine and cheese at Barav, soaking in the district's rich atmosphere.

DAY 6 ● RIVER SEINE CRUISE

Start the day with a boat ride along the Seine, offering a unique perspective on Paris's iconic monuments—an unforgettable Parisian experience. As the day winds down, enjoy a leisurely walk along the riverbanks, soaking in the city's enchanting ambiance. Pause near the newly reopened Notre-Dame, where Parisians convene each evening for spontaneous gatherings, adding a touch of local charm to the perfect end of the day.

DAY 7 ● RETURN HOME

On departure day, enjoy a relaxed schedule with a choice of charming activities. Stroll through La Campagne à Paris or La Butte aux Cailles, two hidden-gem neighborhoods that feel like a countryside escape. Alternatively, indulge in shopping at iconic department stores like Galeries Lafayette or unwind with a peaceful walk and coffee in a scenic park such as Parc Monceau, Jardin des Plantes, or Buttes Chaumont.
